YOUR ORGANIZATION CAN JOIN CPF AS AN ASSOCIATE MEMBER!

Canadian Parents for French is a national network of parents, educators and organizations working to promote and enhance French-language educational and cultural opportunities for youth. By becoming an associate member of CPF, you can help your students and members take advantage of the hundreds of events put on by CPF each year around the region, including our ever popular Concours d'arts oratoire. We can also better pool our resources, share information, promote learning opportunities for youth, and create a more supportive environment for French Second language education.

School districts, schools, French clubs, associations,— everyone is welcome! Join Canada's most powerful national voice advocating for excellence in French immersion and French Second Language programs.
