

CPF Canadian Parents for French

British Columbia & Yukon Branch

Canadian Parents for French – BC & Yukon wants YOUR ORGANIZATION to become an Associate Member Organization of CPF!

Why become an Associate Member Organization (AMO)?

A national, provincial or local organization can become an Associate Member Organization of Canadian Parents for French in order to demonstrate that it endorses the goals and activities of CPF. We believe your school shares our desire in encouraging a supportive environment for French Second language (FSL) education and with your help we can inform teachers and parents of the many resources and extra-curricular activities in French we have available.

There are many benefits to becoming an AMO!

When your school joins CPF as an AMO, you will:

- ✓ become an important voice for the support of all programs of French Second Language learning in British Columbia.
- ✓ receive up to 10 copies of provincial and national newsletters and mailings to keep school staff and volunteers up-to-date on French Second Language education in BC, Yukon and across Canada, a $250 value.
- ✓ be entitled to send a representative to the annual CPF – BC & Yukon Annual General Meeting & Conference as a non-sponsored, non-voting delegate.
- ✓ have access to the Members-Only section of the national website.
- ✓ gain access to a large body of research and information about French Second Language programs.
- ✓ have access to a network of people who all have a similar interest in quality French Second Language education for British Columbia & Yukon students.
- ✓ receive advance knowledge and first hand opportunity to participate in CPF and CPF – BC & Yukon events or projects.
- ✓ Support French Second Language Education and Canada's linguistic duality.

Promoting opportunities for young Canadians to learn and use French
