

Useful websites for French Immersion students and parents

As always, Internet sites should be previewed by parents before giving children access. If you find any other useful sites, please let me know.

<http://www.bced.gov.bc.ca/parentguide/ph-k-3.pdf>

Ministry of Education website: you can order or download a copy of the Curriculum handbook for parents. Performance standards and IRPs (curriculum guides) are also available at this site.

<http://www.icemultimedia.com/introlow.htm>

Purchase French and English software, such as "Adibou".

<http://www.utm.edu/departments/french/french.html>

Tennessee Bob's Famous French sites – includes many French links

<http://pagesperso.scola.ac-paris.fr/claudemarc/Htflm/index/presente.htm>

Children's online French games

<http://www.momes.net/complines/>

A large selection of songs and poems in French, some come with a sound track, or printouts

<http://www.ed.gov/pubs/parents/Science/index.html>

great ideas to help your child learn science at home

<http://www.ed.gov/pubs/parents/Math/index.html>

great ideas to help your child learn math at home

<http://www.pouletfrites.com>

site in French for children, includes stories, games, songs, poems and more

<http://www.cpf.ca>

Canadian Parents for French website. Keep up to date with French Immersion in schools.

link below.

<http://www.cpf.ca/> (Canadian Parents for French – French workshops for parents)

In addition here is a list of great French websites for you and your child:

www.lescale.net (numerous activities for children)

www.momes.net (excellent activities, stories, games)

www.lapinville.net (games, activities, information about animals)

www.dispapa.com (answers questions)

www.jecris.com (stories, jokes, songs, activities, colouring)

www.takatrouver.net (reading, math, research, information)

Here are some places to buy French books/cassettes/videos

1. National book services 604-732-1335, #103-366 E. Kent Street
2. SRS 604-538-6226, Windsor Square, #126-1959, 152 St. White Rock
3. Kidsbooks, 604-738-5335, 3083 West Broadway, Vancouver
4. Sophia Books, 604-684-0484, 492 W. Hastings, Vancouver